

If nothing changes, more than half of the youth in our community will NOT graduate from high school.

It's time to break the cycle.

Join a community dialogue to respond to this crisis on May 22, 2008.

"Turning-it-Around"
South Philadelphia
Community Summit

Date: May 22, 2008

Time: 5:30pm - 8:30pm

Location: Wordsworth Beacon / Baratt Middle School, 16th and Wharton

RSVP: To register or for more info visit projectturn.net or call 267-502-3706

Summit Highlights

- Refreshments, raffles and community resources are available!
- Develop a local strategy to help youth complete high school.

Summit Organizers/Funders

The summit is organized by the Philadelphia Anti-Drug/Anti-Violence Network, United Communities, Diversified Community Services, Wharton Square, FAST, 17th Police District, Arts in Motion, Communities in Schools, Wordsworth Beacon, Marian Anderson Rec., Blue Print for a Safer Philadelphia. Funding for the summit is provided by America's Promise Alliance and Washington Mutual.

